At the Table with Rapitae was a 3-day ephemeral restaurant at Millesime's culinary pop-up event in Mexico City. This was a collaborative work with multimedia artist Yupica, in which visual and multimedia art, culinary-, and sound-art by Chimijo, are blended into a unique, sober, but complex experience. Rapitae seeks to generate a spatial experience in relation to time. Just as Yupica extrapolates food (rice) to the art field, the chef transforms the most basic food into elements of experience. This is not a restaurant but a common space for delight built out of ordinary and raw materials.
