CASA MEZTITLA x EDAA presents a selection of collectible design pieces by EDAA – Luis Arturo García, framed through Casa Meztitla, a lived architectural project that embodies the studio's extended practice.

Casa Meztitla operates as a spatial ecosystem where architecture, art, design, hospitality, culinary practice, co-creation and collaborative practices, and everyday life converge in direct relation to territory and environment. The pieces are not defined by their place of origin, but by their capacity to inhabit—moving between production, circulation, and lived contexts, where use, time, climate, bodies, rituals, and collective processes actively shape their meaning.

This environment of objects is condensed through an audiovisual work by AURA duo (Jimena Ramírez, Alonso Gutiérrez), where objects, space, and sound operate as an interdependent system, sustaining one another and extending the spatial, relational, and experiential logic of Casa Meztitla.
